SCOTTY LARUE WINS BEAVERBROOK GOLF INVITATION HERE ON SUNDAY

Some thirty-five golfers charged with a fine 78. In third place Rex Boice of Haliburton scored 79. After the last score was handed in, around 6:30 p.m. Dave Stevens of the Beaverbrook course, presented the trophy and prizes. He thanked everyone for a fine competitive day of golf, and gave special thanks to the golfers from Haliburton club, for their support in the Invitation Tournament.

It was a very successful day with many good scores, and keen competition over the 18 hole tournament.

Scotty LaRue from Haliburton won the Beaverbrook Open Invitation Trophy, after a four hole playoff with Fred Baxter, a Toronto sharp shooter. Both golfers finished their 18 hole play with a net score of 70, forcing the playoff. Fred Baxter settled for second place, when he was ousted on the fourth hole of the playoff. Ken Pitman of Toronto finished in third position.

In the low gross category it was another battle of nerves, as Ken Rosenberg of Haliburton edged Dave Wilkins of Toronto, scoring a blistering 75, while Dave came in three strokes back,

Minden Fair The Best Ever

Saturday August 27th was a big day at the Fair, here in Minden. The Agricultural Society Officials reported the most successful Fair Day in the history of the 102 year old Exhibition.

Thousands of people took advantage of perfect weather, and saw one of the best stage shows this community has ever had.

The Horse show was one of the highlights of the day with many fine entries. Sinc Nesbitt of Minden, and his Belgian team, of course stole the show, Mr. Nesbitt's horses are the finest in the district, and are making this area known throughout Ontario, and the Northern States. Finishing in second place was Bert Holmes of Orillia, with his team.

Sinc Nesbitt also won first for the best team of horses, and the best Colt at the Fair. In the Four Horse Hitch, it was once again Mr. Nesbitt in first place; Robert Robertson in second and Simpson Robertson taking third prize.

A fine entry of Ponies were on display. The best Pony Foal was won by Gerald Henry of Cameron. Broad Mare and Foal, went to Madeleine Carpentier of Sutton west. Champion Mare, Clare Jewell. Champion Stallion, Ross Wilson, Wilfred. Single Harness Clare Jewell, Saddle Pony was once again M. Carpentier.

The best Lady and Gent rider was A. Anderson from Dunsford, and D. Carpenter.

The best heavy Draft Stallion, was won by a Minden horseman, Harvey McIntosh.

ROTARIANS HAVE SUCCESSFUL FAMILY PICNIC ON SUNDAY

The Rotarians here in Minden held a family picnic on Sunday afternoon and evening, August 28th, at Rotary Park. It was fun and games for everyone, as Irvin House, acting as sports director for the day, scheduled many events for the children, and prizes for everyone.

A horseshoe pitching championship was held, for the mothers and fathers, but no winners were declared. However, Perc Brintnell and Ruth Gorrie, looked to be the better pitchers.

There was no shortage of food, head barbecue chef, Joe Dollo, did a fine job around the coals, flipping burgers and rolling weiners like a veteran. There were plenty of sweets and refreshments to complete the menu.

This was the first of such activities held by the Rotarians at their park — the weather was perfect, and everyone had a wonderful time. Don't be surprised if the Rotarians come up with another family day before the snow flies — it could be a corn roast in October?

Saturday at the Fair we heard another explanation for the "mysterious marks" that appeared around town a couple of weeks ago.

The suggestion was that someone had been putting something in the cheap coffee I had been drinking and this had caused the allucinations. Not so, others saw the marks and drew them to my attention. Also, I take my coffee with no cream or sugar, and I would notice anything that had been added. Besides with coffee such an economic problem who's going to throw anything extra in it — for nothing.

It is about time we viewers of T.V. got together and made a mass protest to the various stations who are continually cramming old re-runs down our throats — along with liberal does of advertising.

When we first saw these programs they were of some entertainment value now, however, on the third time around they are getting a bit sickening. For instance, the Fugitive wasn't caught two seasons ago and as you watch the same thing over again there doesn't appear to be any likelihood that he's any closer to being caught.

Maybe the advertisers should take a closer look at what is being foisted off on the viewing public — it's not increasing the image of their products. However — we have to take what they serve us up.

Now, if you like sports — you sure get a liberal helping of this mishmash. Saturdays and Sundays when a working man has a little time to sit down and enjoy a grog and some T.V. — he gets sports right up to here.

Not much use writing any more about this — everyone knows what a mess the programmes are in but we can do nothing — I have one suggestion though — don't buy the product that keeps pushing these re-runs down your throat.

The power of suggestion is a wonderful thing.

In the parking lot of a restaurant in Peterborough I had a car pull in and park next to me. The young couple had three small dogs with them. I admired the dogs and as they put them in the car and left to go in for lunch I asked the young chap if he had ever lost a dog from his car while they were away. "No", he answered, "they never had and the thought never occurred to him."

As I was getting into my car and lighting a cigar before I took off I noticed he and his wife having a conference at the entrance of the shop.

The result of it was he came back, opened up his car and drove it over to the other side of the parking lot near a window where they could keep an eye on it.

I hope I haven't ruined life for those young people — or maybe it was me they didn't trust — anyhow, you see what suggestion can do for people.

In this day and age stress and nervous tension takes the largest toll of medical patients. The largest medical centre is in Chicago which covers almost 500 acres and has 5,600 beds. The largest mental hospital in Long Island, New York has over 14,000 beds.

That should give you something to think about.

In the mailbag was the following letter to the Editor. "I personally enjoy your paper as much as my husband."

And there you are — until next week.

HIGHLANDS PROPERTY OWNERS COUNCIL ARE TOLD REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT PLAN VITAL

Guest speaker Edwin Curtin, President Lake Ontario Development Association, Peterborough told representatives of 21 cottage associations at the Annual Meeting of the Haliburton Highlands Property Owners Council, Saturday, that hodge-podge building will soon destroy the area as a vacationland unless legislation institutes an orderly plan for development in the near future. The rapid influx of summer residents and tourists during the past few years has created an alarming situation and a grave threat of pollution to natural resources.

Nearly a hundred cottagers heard Mr. Curtin urge them to press for sanitary bylaws, for help from local health units, and legislation from municipal councils and Provincial government before it is too late. The expenditure of a few hundreds of dollars now could prevent destruction which millions would be required to rectify. He suggested that cottagers could also conduct their own "clean water campaign for example by using pure soap instead of cheap detergents.

The Lake Ontario Development Association is a non-political body supported by Provincial and Municipal funds. It conducts studies and surveys and furnishes facts about the region. Its members work in close conjunction with the Department of Economics and Development as well as Travel and Tourism to achieve the proper development of farm, industrial and home. Thus insuring protection for future betterment of the area. L.O.D.A.'s latest publication "Design for Progress" is at present promoting the region both in and out of Canada. Copies are available from Mr. Don Kingdon, General manager L.O.D.A., 267 St. George St. Box 353, Peterborough.

ROCKCLIFFE HOTEL
SWINGING CORNER ON MINDEN'S MAIN STREET

The Rockcliffe Hotel is one of the lively corners of Minden, with its fine entertainment and friendly atmosphere. It has good accommodation, and home made meals to satisfy the traveller.

It is one of the older businesses in town, built in approximately 1900 and was owned and operated as the Ranson Boarding House. Since that time there have been seven or eight owners of the Rockcliffe, which was bought by Wilfred Lahay and his sister, Pauline in January 23, 1959, and is operated by Pauline, Wilf, and his wife Wynn.

Wilf and Pauline have lived most of their lives in Toronto, from which they have travelled Canada's bush country in the field of Prospecting, Mining and Exploration, and have arranged many a deal on Bay Street. They are still closely associated with this interest.

Wynn worked for many years at the Prince Arthur Hotel, Port Arthur, and the Chateau Laurier, in Ottawa, in secretarial and personnel work, and then as a mining secretary in Toronto.

The Layhays are enthusiastic about the beauty and friendliness in this area, and are keenly interested in the promotion work of the Chamber of Commerce, the Minden Festivals Committee. They have been closely associated with the Minden Winter Carnival since its inception, and have been ardent workers on many of the committees.

The Rockcliffe Hotel employs four full time employees, Mrs. Hazel Ward, Mrs. Gwen Cox, Joe Lahay and Cliff Dufty. In the busy season the staff is increased to eight or nine, to handle the different phases of the business. The Lahays also run the Snack Bar at the side of the Hotel, this is also a lively corner, especially in the evenings, when hamburgs and chips make up the evening snacks.

On summing up the story on the Rockcliffe Hotel, we do not hesitate in saying it is a home, away from home for the traveller — a lively spot with top entertainment for the nightly excitement seeker.

Pauline, Wynn, and Wilf are certainly fine boosters of the area and especially Minden, and play a big role in the towns progress.

Shown here is Pauline and Wilfred looking over the new shuffle boards, which were installed.

Wynn Lahay talks to Cliff Dufty behind the bar, as they prepare for a busy evening.

TEN COMMANDMENTS FOR HAPPINESS

Is everyone happy? Happiness is something everyone strives for — for some it means entertainment, money, children, friendship, success, sex, society, health, we could go on and on. Some people have to have many things before they are happy, others have everything — and are not happy. Then what is the answer? Is it mental, physical, material, or is it just being human.

Now you are probably wondering why we are on this happiness kick this week — with shorter work hours, more money, credit, all the things in life at our finger tips? Well, as you look around, you can see many people who have the things in life to make one happy, but for some reason they are striving for something more.

In going through an old scrapbook, we found some material which made some sense to us, you might find the "Ten Commandments For Happiness" interesting as well.

1. Though shalt cultivate a sense of humor, and remember that much gloom has been created by those who take life too seriously.
2. Thou shalt not despise thy body, but develop it for strength and beauty. Eat wholesome food, exercise regularly and take plenty of sleep.
3. Thou shalt have a dominating, worth-while purpose in thy life, and allow nothing to turn thee from its fulfillment.
4. Thou shalt look upon thy job as the most important thing in the world, and strive ever to do it perfectly.
5. Thou shalt be thyself. Never seek to imitate another.
6. Thou shalt live within thy means, thine own desires, thy neighbors' appearance and high-pressure salesmen notwithstanding.
7. Thou shalt not worry; neither shalt thou be nervous or fearful of the future, for worry is the death of happiness.
8. Thou shalt do well to get acquainted with Nature, for many have thereby discovered beauty, melody and fragrance in life.
9. Thou shalt take care never to seek for happiness, for it is one thing which seeking thou canst not find.
10. Thou shalt above all, strive ever to contribute to the happiness of others, for in so doing, thou shalt discover happiness in thine own mind.

OPINION — INDICATES PARK IS NEEDED

Last week I hesitated in suggesting that we would have your opinions in regards to whether a new Night Lighted Ball Park should be built in Minden! My reasoning was rather elementary too, in fact I felt that perhaps the citizens of Minden felt our Ball Facilities were adequate and a change was just not wanted. However, our Opinion Poll has shot me down completely — changes are needed, and changes are definitely wanted!!!

The 'Progress' takes a positive stand for such a project as it could be turned quite easily into a Centennial Project of considerable merit.

Fathers, what will your son or daughter be doing one, two or three years from now? Standing on the corner down town! Politicians, with elections coming in November, what will be your stand, in regards to recreation facilities! Are we to remain stagnant?

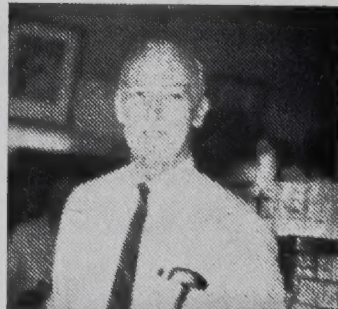

Well, you have heard my views, (take it for what its worth) however, its your opinion that counts, and here are just a few of them —

Vern Gartshore — declined our offer to take his picture, however, his view was, "I feel the idea of such a project has possibilities, we could certainly do with better recreational facilities."

FRED COOPER

Fred Cooper — Owner of the Minden Barber Shop — feels that, "Ball Facilities are inadequate, and always have been!" Fred, goes on to say, "It would be nice to have a new Ball Park, but, I'm not too sure about Night Lights".

LORNE COBURN

Lorne Coburn — Owner of the Minden Drub Store — said, "I would certainly like to see something decent, for the team to play on!" Lorne concluded, "The cost of $12,000. does not appear to be too much, as it could be paid over a period of years. I would be in favour of such facilities."

MRS. JOAN MACKENZIE

Mrs. Joan Mackenzie — Sales clerk at Minden 5c to $1.00 store, told the Progress, "I feel that all Sports Facilities are inadequate, here in Minden. A new Ball Park would be an asset to tourism, as well as entertainment for the residents. The figure of $12,000. does not appear to be too high."

AL ROGERS

Al Rogers — Feels that, "Improvement is needed. A new site would be alright, if situated in a good location. $12,000. does not appear to be unreasonable. This is a recreational centre, we should have better facilities."

ARE YOU AN "INATTENTIVE" DRIVER

Although the coming Labour Day weekend will provide a break from the regular working routine — a great many people will be working over the weekend. They'll be driving their cars, and driving a car is a full time job which requires constant attention.

"Inattentive driving is a major cause of accidents. The records show that inattentive driving heads the list of all the improper driver actions reported as a cause in accidents. Running a close second is driving off the roadway, which is often the result of inattention as well. These two accounted for over 40 per cent of all improper actions on the part of drivers involved in accidents last year.

Here are some hints from the Department of Transport to help you keep your attention focused on the complex job of driving during a busy holiday week end.

1. Pay attention to the traffic signs and signals. They're there to help traffic move smoothly and safely.
2. Plan your trip in short hops, so you won't have to travel too far at a stretch.
3. Watch out for "highway hypnosis" particularly on long straight stretches of road. If you do find yourself becoming drowsy, stop for a rest but be sure to pull well off the travelled part of the road.
4. Keep both hands on the steering wheel — at the "10 minutes to two o'clock" position.
5. Centre your eyes on the road in front, but avoid a fixed stare. Your eyes should move from side to side to get the full picture of the traffic situation ahead.
6. Check your rear-view mirror frequently so you'll know what's developing behind you.
7. Signal your intentions well in advance if you're going to pass or change lanes. On multi-lane highways, check the blind spot to the right before pulling back into the driving lane.
8. Make sure you have an "out" in case of an emergency — adequate stopping space in front, (one car length for every 10 miles of speed is recommended) — and if practicable, swerving room to one side.

LEADER SAYS LIBERALS TOUGH - HARD BREED

"This is a country with a tough hard breed of Liberals; their heads are not bowed, and you in this riding must be the highest calibre of Liberals across the country. You have had the attention of the whole nation, and have laid the foundation for a victory in the next election" Provincial Liberal leader Andrew Thompson told the Victoria-Haliburton and Ontario North Liberals at their annual meeting at Cedar Villa Lodge, Saturday, August 27th.

The leader of the opposition in the Ontario Legislature addressed some two hundred delegates to the annual meeting at their dinner session Saturday evening. During the afternoon the delegates held their election of officers and were addressed by Hugh Faulkner, Liberal M.P. for Peterborough. Dr. Donald Wood of Lindsay, retiring executive secretary of the Haliburton-Victoria Liberal Association chaired the nominating committee and the election of officers at the annual meeting.

Many supporters from Minden, Haliburton district were present.

LED POLICE ON HIGH-SPEED CHASE, CAR GOES INTO LAKE

A 25 year old Woodville man, Garfield Everson, whose car crashed when he was leading provincial police on a high-speed chase early Saturday morning, was remanded in Lindsay magistrate's court Monday to September 8, charged with dangerous driving.

Coboconk OPP said the 1962 model car driven by Everson led them on a high speed chase for 16 miles before it went into Balsam Lake and crashed into stumps.

Police said the chase started on Highway 35 at Coboconk. The car went south on Highway 35 for 10 miles, west on County Road 8 for 5 miles and then turned north on a Fenelon Township road where it travelled for a mile with no lights before it went out of control.

The vehicle travelled 150 feet in the ditch and then entered Balsam Lake where it travelled about 160 feet in three feet of water and crashed into some stumps.

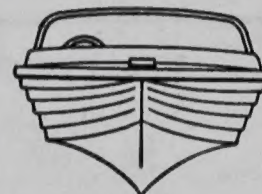

Police estimated damage to the vehicle at $500.

Coboconk OPP Constable A. J. Kea investigated.

PRESIDENT OF KINSMEN ASSOCIATION

Harold S. Taggart of London, Ontario, was elected President of the Association of Kinsmen Clubs at the Annual Meeting held in Fort William, Ontario, August 24-27. A well known lawyer, Mr. Taggart served as vice-president of the Association last year and now succeeds Will Klein of Regina, Saskatchewan.

Harold Taggart

Kinsmen Clubs across Canada are well-known for their many contributions to community betterment and service work.

During the past year more than two-thirds of any estimated $350,000 for a Workshop for training personnel for work with Retarded Children has been raised by the 222 Kinsmen and Kinette clubs in Canada. It is hoped to turn the sod for this building in Toronto next year.

Kinsmen clubs in Minden, Bobcaygeon and Lindsay are among those that have contributed to the service project.

ST. PAUL'S MINDEN

We are happy to welcome on Sunday, September 4th, the Rev. Allan Johnstone, as guest speaker.

His mother, Alice Curry was born in Minden. A graduate Pharmacist, she managed the Minden Drug Store.

His father, Rev. George Johnstone, while a student at Trinity College spent two summers at the Clergy House, preaching at the various out post missions.

How very interesting to have their son deliver the address?

Of course, Allan is no stranger to our town. He holidays at his cottage on Horseshoe Lake and he and Mrs. Johnstone often attend the eight o'clock service.

We are looking forward with keen interest to hearing his message.

MINDEN PROGRESS

PLENTY OF ACTION AT MINDEN FAIR

Pictured in the top left hand corner, are a couple of young gals, who couldn't care less about the horse show, when there is candy floss to eat. Top right picture gives you some idea of the crowd, who took in the horse show. Rothmans Cigarettes Van can be seen at the side of the showing field. These people did a tremendous job throughout the day, making all the announcements. Bottom Left, shows "Mr. Horseman", Sinc Nesbitt, with his team. At right is the fine drum and marching corps from Barrie, these girls put on a fine show.

For the most prizes in Cattle, John Seims from Cameron. Most Prizes in sheep, Don Grant of Bolsover. Most prizes in Pigs, Gordon Cruikshanks of Haliburton.

The horse Drawing Contest was an exciting event, with Ronald Sweeney from Lanark, in first, Murray Cowen of Haliburton in Second, and George McLean, taking third place.

Another interesting feature of the Minden Fair, is the prizes for the oldest man and woman this years prize winners were, Mrs. Sam Davies 88 years, and Mr. James Maine, 93 years old.

The women were on hand, with their hammers, and of course this was for the nail driving contest. When the noise subsided, it was Mrs. Pearl Mason, first, Mrs. Vivian Thompson second and Mrs. Evelyn Stevenson finishing third.

The step dancing was won by Mrs. Bernice Crawford, with Stan Sawyer finishing in second place.

There was no contest for the many fiddlers, as Gordon Proctor was just too good, he won the contest hands down.

In the horseshoe pitching contest it was the team of Bud Pipher and Phil Sawyer, who took the honours.

Winners of the Fruit Cake Draw were Mrs. Leigh Sisson, Mrs. Roy Kernohan, Mrs. George Jones.

Rounding out the final results in the horse show, the Percheron team winners were, Clark Trent, Oakwood; Wallace Denne, Orillia; Gerald Bell, Woodville.

The Clydesdale Team — light draft, Robert Robertson, of Lindsay was first, Sernpsou Dawson of Lindsay was second.

In the Heavy Draft, Robert Robertson, first; T. H. Walder, Fenelon Falls, second.

In the competition for Single Hitch, Heavy Draft, Alvin Mark of Cameron took first and third prize, while Russ Uncless of Barr-

fashion news BY NANCY GAYLORD
FASHION CONSULTANT TO THE 160 SINGER CENTERS IN CANADA.

Peek-a-Boo shoes — the newest tactics of transparencies. St. Laurent kicked off the idea and now high fashion shops take up the cry with the classic low heeled spectator pump in clear plastic with black patent heel and toe. Another hit will be the sporty Gilly with punched patent heel and toe, midway transparency and black lacing of course. Hitch a ride on this bandwagon before just everyone has them — but don't forget your pedicure.

It's not Easter, so don't play bunny. Take a short, short skirt, high spike heels and dark stockings — just like a bunny playmate, isn't it? Instead, complement short skirts (which should be relaxed, never tight) with pale pastel stockings and flat or flattish shoes.

Bell Bottom Trousers, Coats are what we'll be wearing and loving this Fall. The navy pea jacket has zoomed in on the fashion front, accented with red piping or braid. Mate with the newer bell bottoms with ankle pleats on the outside of the leg.

The Inside Out story will be told in print, soon. The secret is that the wrong side of a print is used on the outside for a faded look. Coordinate with the washed out look in denim separates. A cinch for the home Fashionmaker since I'll bet we've all sewn something inside out before (by mistake, of course).

Frankly Fake furs for winter come in colors nature never intended. Fabulous fun to sew and go in — amenagerie to choose from — squirrel, broadtail, chinchilla, leopard or calf. Pick a simple pattern with no collar or buttonholes and as few seams as possible. For your first fling with fur fakes, try a sleeveless overblouse for apres ski. Bind edges with thick, elegant braid instead of facings. Place pattern on wrong side with pile all going in same direction; cut from wrong side with a razor blade. After seaming, shear pile away from seam allowances and with a pin, lift out pile caught in seam on right side. Go stock yourself an "animal" in your favourite fabric store and have fun. Happy Hunting!

Color it Berry for Fall — Cranberry, blueberry, raspberry, black berry or strawberry — delectable hues to flatter every complexion. Paris decrees plum and fuschia, the extremes at each end of the berry spectrum, for ultra-high fashions. For suits, co-ordinated flannels in soft plaids and matching greys will be a strong trend.
